

Our local TV stations are providing less informative news and progressively worse entertainment, with increased violence and protrail of simulated or near nudity. It would appear that to obtain well presented and intelegent news & good programming we must pay $480.00 or more annually for cable or satelite service. No more media concentration. All of our people deserve good, no-cost service, without risk of increased political influence or easing of political influence.